Point of Contact: Sr. Vice President/Vice President for Student Affairs

Other LC State offices directly involved with implementation of this policy, or significantly affected by the policy: Title IX Coordinator.

Date of approval by LC State authority: August 31st, 2020

Date of State Board Approval: n/a

Date of Most Recent Review: February 2026

Summary of Major Changes incorporated in this revision to the policy: This policy has been updated to reflect current web addresses and change abbreviations from LCSC to LC State. .

PURPOSE: The general student grievance policy outlines the process students follow to file a formal grievance about a particular aspect of their educational experience. This policy/procedure is intended to eliminate potential confusion on the part of students, members of the campus community, and external groups as to which grievance process students follow in any given situation.

POLICY:

1. Students have the right to file formal complaints or grievances about any aspect of their experiences at LC State. The vice president for Student Affairs shall be the primary point-of-contact for all LC State students who wish to file a grievance or otherwise share concerns about the college. Grievances may be filed with the vice president for Student Affairs either in person, in writing or electronically at <https://www.lcsc.edu/student-affairs/student-grievance>. Once a complaint is received it will be reviewed by the vice president to determine the nature of the grievance and appropriate office to assist the student with resolving the grievance.

SECTION: GENERAL

SUBJECT: General Student Grievance

The following are selected established grievance procedures for specific issues:

- A. Grade Grievance/Appeals will follow the guidelines set forth in Policy 5.310. The vice president for Student Affairs will assist students in initiating this type of grievance.
- B. Title II/Section 504/Americans with Disabilities Act: The Accessibility Services Office follows a grievance procedure for students who believe they have not been appropriately provided accommodations for their disabilities. Additional information is available at <https://www.lcsc.edu/accessibility-services/>. Students who believe they have been discriminated against on the basis of disability should review Policy 3.110 at <https://www.lcsc.edu/policies>.
- C. Equal Opportunity, Harassment and Nondiscrimination: LC State is committed to providing an environment that emphasizes the dignity and worth of every member of its community and that is free from discrimination, sexual harassment and sexual misconduct. Any individual who believes they may have been the target of unlawful discrimination or harassment, or who witnesses this type of behavior towards someone else, must feel free to report their concerns for appropriate investigation and response, without fear of retaliation. All complaints or any concerns about conduct that may violate this policy and retaliation should be filed with the Title IX Coordinator or other college official with authority. For more information go to <http://www.lcsc.edu/policies> Policy 3.110.
- D. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA): FERPA is a Federal law which states (a) that a written institutional policy must be established and (b) that a statement of adopted procedures covering the privacy rights of students be made available. The law provides that the institution will maintain the confidentiality of student education records. In the event a student feels there has been a violation of his/her rights a complaint can be filed with the college's Registrar. For more information about the FERPA policy see <http://www.lcsc.edu/policies> Policy 1.117.
